Exclusion of liability

We present products and provide information on our Web pages. We wish to point out that this provision of information is not legally binding.

The authors have taken great care in drafting the manuscripts for reproducing all of the information provided on these Internet pages (methods, quantities, doses, applications, etc.). However, errors cannot be entirely ruled out. We therefore assume no liability for the relevance, accuracy or completeness of the information provided.

The graphics, texts and images displayed are copyright protected. The reproduction or use thereof in other electronic or printed publications is not permitted without the consent of the authors.

If registered names, trade names, and descriptions of goods are used, these are often legally protected, registered brand names, even if they are not always identified as such.

The Medicon Internet pages also contribute to opinion-forming and provide information originating from third parties. The authors must always reveal the source of such information. Opinions published here do not necessarily reflect those of Medicon.
